INTRODUCTION

INTRODUCTION

Holy Name of Jesus School is an elementary school within the Roman Catholic Diocese of Harrisburg located at 6190 Allentown Boulevard, Harrisburg, PA, 17112, in eastern suburban Harrisburg. The school is a Middle States Accredited school since 2008. The grade alignment in this school of approximately 360 students is pre-kindergarten through eighth grade.

Students at Holy Name of Jesus School are immersed within the three-fold purpose of Catholic education - doctrine, community, and service. The Catholic identity of our school is woven within the fabric of our curriculum that is developed and approved by our Diocese. Students receive academic instruction in the core subject areas of integrated language arts, mathematics, science, social studies, and religion. Specialty subjects of art, music, computer, and physical education, which are provided by the Diocese of Harrisburg, are also taught at each grade level. The world language of Spanish is taught at Holy Name of Jesus School in all grade levels. Weekly library instruction is included within the language arts curriculum. Intensive instructional support services exist for students who have been recommended for more extensive academic interventions.

Extracurricular activities abound at Holy Name of Jesus School ranging from music, chorus, band, school musical, academic clubs and National History Day. With service as a primary focus, a student council consisting of eighth grade students provides opportunities for our students to help others within the church and local communities.

Operating as a learning community within a faith community, the school's financial means is provided by a number of sources, including tuition, parish subsidy, financial scholarships provided by outside resources, and minimal large event fundraisers. Families are required to commit to all financial tuition agreements made in order to maintain efficiency in our operating budget.

Holy Name of Jesus School welcomes students from diverse backgrounds. We strive to live our motto "Where love and learning go hand in hand."

PHILOSOPHY

Holy Name of Jesus School is dedicated to the student's total formation: spiritual, academic, and human. We strive to provide a safe and secure atmosphere that is fully and dynamically Catholic, and academically sound and challenging. We affirm that every human being is made in God's image and likeness. We know and teach that every person is a unique creation with intrinsic value who is loved by God and has been created by Him to share in His eternal life and joy.

It is of the utmost priority to us that our students develop the talents God has given them, acquire important knowledge in the core subjects, learn skills that will help them to make of their lives a gift to God and make positive contributions to society in many and various human endeavors. May they be builders of a culture of life and a civilization of love.
